ORAL JUDGEMENT (Per Patel, J.)

Being aggrieved by the judgment and order passed by learned Single Judge (Coram: Ms. R.M. Doshit, J.) on 8.9.1997 in Special Civil Application No. 4292 of 1997, the original petitioner has preferred this appeal.

2. The sum and substance of the petitioner's contention is that the petitioner was working in a Co-Operative Bank, and as criminal proceedings have been initiated, departmental inquiry should not proceed against him.

3. Learned Singled Judge has considered the submissions made by the learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner. After considering the decisions which are referred in the judgment, the learned Judge has come to the conclusion that the respondent Bank, which is a Co-operative Bank registered under the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act, is not a "State" or "other authority" within the meaning of Art. 12 of the Constitution nor is it amenable to the writ jurisdiction of this Court. Learned Single Judge has therefore, held that the petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India is not maintainable.

4. In view of what is stated in the judgment of the learned Single Judge, we do not find any substance in this appeal, and the appeal stands dismissed summarily. Consequently, the Civil Application does not survive, and it stands disposed of accordingly.
